PAY TRIBUTES TO THE DEAD

FUNERAL OF THE LATE JUDGE WILCOX THIS AFTERNOON AT KAWAIAHAO CHURCH—ALL THE COURTS ADJOURN OUT OF RESPECT TO HIS MEMORY—MANY EULOGIES PRONOUNCED—THE BAR ASSOCIATION.

The funeral of the late Judge Luther Wilcox takes place this afternoon at 4 o'clock, at Kawaiaha'o church. The Rev. H. H. Parker will officiate, assisted by a Hawaiian clergyman, and there will be music by the church choir. At 3 o'clock the remains will be taken to the church and an hour later the services will commence.

The pallbearers will be W. O. Smith, president of the Bar Association; High Sheriff A. M. Brown, Henry Smith, clerk of the courts; Judge J. L. Kaulukou, D. Dayton, Charles Lucas, W. R. Castle and William Henry, warden of Oahu Prison.

There will be an escort of police. The interment will be in Nuanu cemetery. Governor Dole has ordered the government band to participate in the services at the grave.

A meeting of attorneys and others was held in the district court room this morning when eulogies were pronounced over the late Judge Luther Wilcox. The services were held in his old court room at the police station where the dead jurist had so often meted out justice in his own fearless way, and tempered his sentences with his honest droll humor and shrewd advice to those who had come before him in trouble and distress.

Judge George A. Davis spoke eloquently of his dead predecessor. He was followed by Judge J. L. Kaulukou, who spoke in Hawaiian, W. O. Smith, ex-Attorney General E. P. Dole, S. F. Chillingworth, T. McCants Stewart and High Sheriff A. M. Brown. All of the speakers paid their tributes to the memory of the deceased and extolled his splendid character and worth. The gathering was very affecting and seldom has there been such a sincere sentiment of regret over the death of any public man, as was shown this morning at the gathering of his late associates of the law.

The following were appointed a committee to draft resolutions of regret over the death of the late Judge: S. F. Chillingworth, Judge J. L. Kaulukou, T. McCants Stewart, A. Lewis and High Sheriff A. M. Brown.

United States Judge Estee and Circuit Judges De Bolt and Gear all adjourned court this morning in honor of the late Judge Wilcox, after remarks appropriate to the occasion. All who spoke in the courts referred in the highest possible terms to the character and abilities of the deceased.

In the federal court District Attorney Breckons moved an adjournment out of respect to the memory of the deceased as a Judge of the Territorial courts and an old timer who was greatly esteemed both by the courts and the public of the Territory.

A. G. M. Robertson said that he hoped the court would grant the motion. It was conceded by all that a great loss had been sustained in the death of Judge Wilcox, said Robertson. "He had long been a prominent character in the islands. In the capacity of Hawaiian interpreter of the courts he rendered services as valuable in my opinion as those he rendered as magistrate, without belittling his work on the bench. He was thoroughly familiar with the ins and outs and the peculiarities of the Hawaiian language and as Hawaiian interpreter his work covered a period when knowledge of the peculiarities of the language was more necessary than now. The population of Hawaiians and the number of Hawaiian litigants were larger and a smaller proportion of them spoke English. It was absolutely necessary for the administration of justice that a man of Judge Wilcox's capacity be available.

"As district magistrate his knowledge of human nature and his wide experience made him peculiarly fit. Certainly he made a splendid record as judge as well as interpreter."

"It was not my privilege to know him as well or as long as some others," said Judge Estee, "but he was one of the few characters, on or off the bench that very few people ever spoke against. He was popular in the best sense, popular because he did right from impulse of right. He was the only man I ever knew who could look a man in the face and send him to jail for six months and have the man convinced that he was doing the right and proper thing under the law. Not that he was hide bound by the law, but he administered justice. He was one of the most useful men the Territory has produced in my opinion, and the court will adjourn out of respect to him as a man as well as judge."

Judge De Bolt stated at the opening of his court that an adjournment would be taken and all cases postponed to tomorrow morning. "In making this order," said the court, "the occasion should not pass without some recognition or notice of the valuable citizenship of the deceased. There may be men of greater natural abilities or men of higher educational advantages in our community, but for true worth and character and everything that goes to make a valuable citizen and man, it seems to me that the equal of the late Judge Wilcox would be hard to find. He had almost intuitive knowledge of the people of the community and stood closer to them perhaps than any other individual. His services were valuable in whatever position he was called to, for he always showed common sense and intuitive knowledge of what was right and wrong. I should be pleased to hear from members of the bar present. I feel that every citizen of the territory has suffered a loss in the death of Judge Wilcox."

Judge Whiting, A. G. Correa and J. M. Vivas expressed their deep regrets in short speeches, and then the court adjourned to tomorrow morning.

Judge Gear also opened court with remarks in eulogy of the deceased magistrate. "I have just learned with profound regret of the death of Judge Luther Wilcox," said Gear, "and the court thinks that out of respect to his memory it should adjourn. This court always had a profound admiration for Judge Wilcox and learned with the deepest regret of his demise. It has always seemed to me that there was not a man in the Hawaiian islands who knew the people as well as Judge Wilcox, especially the natives. He rendered decisions in every instance equitable and just and, as I say, it was with profound regret and much pain that I learned of his death this morning. It is fitting that we should adjourn in respect to one who lived in the hearts of the people as he did. I never heard a word against him. I believe there are few in this community who are loved by the people and especially by Hawaiians as was Judge Wilcox."

CASH IS SCARCE

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL STARTS ARRANGEMENTS FOR SPENDING THE LARGE SUMS APPROPRIATED BY THE LEGISLATURE—PUBLIC WORKS, HEALTH AND EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENTS TO DISCUSS FUNDS.

The Executive Council this morning discussed the expenditure of money under the new appropriation bills and it was decided that a meeting of the Superintendent of Public Works, the Board of Health and the Board of Education, representing the three departments which do the most spending, should be held next Wednesday to discuss apportionments of funds. Treasurer Kepoikali reported to the council that there was not enough money in sight to carry out the plans of the departments. This month is near the end of the period. He estimated that the total income of the government from all sources would be about $80,000 this month.

The departments are all anxious to start at once on the work given them. Treasurer Kepoikali will prepare a statement of money available, including what he can borrow and this will be the basis of discussion at the meeting on Wednesday. The salaries have the first call out of the money on hand. Superintendent Cooper submitted a plan for the extension of Bishop street through to Beretania and also asked for some lands in Kogalua, to use them in exchanges for street widening purposes. He will investigate the proposition and make a report on them. In the extension of Bishop street it is proposed to do away with Union street and Garden lane.

A letter was read from a Hawaii settler who had a vigorous kick to make because E. S. Boyd had failed to answer a letter he sent inquiring about his land titles. Boyd said that the delay in the titles had been due to imperfect surveys and that the reason for not answering was that the settler who wrote was too much of a kicker. It was decided that a reply should be sent informing the settler of the state of affairs.

APPROPRIATIONS OF OVER $8,000,000

THE TOTAL AMOUNT OF EXPENDITURE THE LEGISLATURE AUTHORIZED, EXCEEDS BY $2,000,000 THE ESTIMATED INCOME PLUS THE LOAN FUND—AT THAT IT HAS A BETTER RECORD THAN THE LAST.

The legislature which has just ended its sessions went over a million dollars in appropriations over and above what the income of the government will be. Including the loan bill appropriations the figures foot up to $8,423,859.49. The loans are to amount to $2,397,270.75, leaving the sum of $6,026,588.74 appropriated aside from the loans. The income of the government is estimated at about $2,300,000 per year, making $4,600,000 of expected income.

The bills carrying appropriations, of the regular and extra sessions, were as follows:

REGULAR SESSION.

Act 1, Expenses of the Senate	25,000 00
Act 2, Expenses of the House	40,000 00

Act 13, Departmental Expenses for 18 months	1,478,355 00

Act 15, Band Traveling Expenses	2,000 00
Act 16, Six Months Salaries	710,585 60
Act 17, Eighteen Months Salaries	1,105,607 00
Act 18, Loan Appropriations	2,397,270 75
Total Extra Session	$7,396,774 94
Total Both Sessions	$8,423,859 49

The total is less than the last legislature appropriated, considering that there is a loan bill this time. With the loan bill cut out this legislature is about $1,300,000 under the last one, in spite of the large sum set aside to start the counties.

LEAVES TO BE CONSECRATED

Very Rev. Father Libert Will Sail For San Francisco on the Alameda Next Wednesday.

Very Rev. Father Libert, Bishop of Zeugma, will be a departing passenger on the Alameda Wednesday for San Francisco. He goes for the purpose of arranging with Arch-Bishop Riordan and Co-Adjutor Bishop Montgomery for consecration as head of the Catholic church in the Hawaiian Islands. The consecration will probably be held in San Francisco. Father Sylvester will accompany the Bishop.

The title of Father Libert is taken from that of an ancient Catholic See that was located on the banks of the Euphrates river in Asia Minor. The See was established in the second century. At that time Zeugma was one of the marts of Asia Minor and was famous as a crossing of the Euphrates. Subsequently when the Saracens overran that country, the city was captured by them.

Father Libert will be absent over a month. He will attend to some church matters during his visit on the Mainland.
